SPECIAL UPDATE: We just received encouraging news regarding the Escapees, TX, issue. Sandra Rodriguez, USPS Address Management Team manager, told us she personally changed the USPS software to recognize zip code 77399 as Livingston, TX.

How soon will these changes take effect? Each company upgrades its USPS addressing software at different times. If they purchase their upgrades on a monthly basis, they will receive the corrected information on April 15, 2008. If they purchase bi-monthly upgrades, they will receive the corrections on May 15, 2008. If they do not purchase the CDs from the USPS and, instead, use the USPS website for address verification, the USPS.com website will be upgraded within 30 days.

We will continue to stay on top of this important issue. Please let us know if you continue to experience problems after the May 15, 2008, deadline.

SKP Co-Op park in Yuma, AZ

The good folks at the KOFA SKP Co-Op park in Yuma, AZ, are sorry to tell us that KOFA will be closed to renters and travelers from May 1, 2008, to October 1, 2008. This closing is necessary because there's no management staff available to run the park this summer. Anyone interested in managing the KOFA Co-Op park in the summer of 2009 is welcome to send a resume to the KOFA board of directors at KOFA Co-Op Park, 3750 E. County 17th St., Yuma, AZ 85365.
