Are you counting the days?

December 21 was the first official day of winter and the beginning of Hanukkah. There are only two more days until Christmas, nine days until New Year's Eve, and 10 days before the first day of 2009.

As you look over the events calendar on Escapees' website or in Escapees magazine, you will see that there are hundreds of fun, educational, and social sharing opportunities coming up in the weeks and months ahead.

For instance, if Florida is on your wish list, consider taking part in the Habitat for Humanity build in Dale City where you can stand shoulder to shoulder with fellow Escapees and others to make someone's life a little brighter.

If you are on the West Coast, you won't want to miss all the activities taking place in Quartzsite, Arizona, in January and February. Chapters 34, 21, 28, 29, and 1 all have rallies you can enjoy, or you can check out the Escapees Elks, Solos, and/or Christian Fellowship BOF events!

Learn more about these events and many more at:

Fuel prices haven't been this low in nearly five years, so take advantage of these additional savings and enjoy your adventures!

Unfortunately, just like the squares on the calendar, everyone's days are numbered. Don't spend yours crossing off another day waiting for the future or worrying about the past—spend each day as if it were your last!

Remember, Escapees offices will be closed at noon on Wednesday, December 24, and will reopen on Friday, December 26. Offices will also be closed on New Year's Day (January 1) and will resume normal operations on Friday, January 2.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from your Escapees RV Club staff and friends!
