You're never too old or too young to enjoy the RV lifestyle!

The world around us may feel like it is spinning out of control, but we can use these challenging times to get back to the basics. What could be more basic than utilizing a small home on wheels to take us to a quieter place? Our RVs provide simplification and quality living in a truly affordable way. So what are you waiting for? Get back to the basics and leave the chaos behind.

There is no better way to get in gear than by taking part in Escapees RVer's Boot Camp. Even if you've been RVing for years, the Escapees RVer's Boot Camp is an outstanding refresher course. If you are brand new to RVing, this is a perfect forum for you to learn all the basics. Training includes RV maintenance and operation, tire and weight safety, fire and life safety, RV driving techniques, and much more. Its intense and highly efficient training curriculum is spiced with humor and memorable hands-on demonstrations. After attending all nine courses (with some food, fun and entertainment thrown in) you will be a Boot Camp graduate with confidence that will stand the tests of life on the road.

Escapees RVer's Boot Camp continues to get five-star ratings from Boot Camp graduates. Each attendee is asked to complete a survey form, and comments like "I would recommend the Escapees Boot Camp Program to any RVer, even those with years of RVing under their belts" and "I'm going to recommend this to my new RVing friends!" are typical responses.

It's not too late to enlist! The next Boot Camp will be held on May 22-24, 2009 in conjunction with the Sedalia Escapade. To register now, please call 888-757-2582. You can also visit the Boot Camp page at www.escapees.com/bootcamp for program schedules and details on upcoming events. Future training opportunities include November 4-6, 2009, in Livingston, TX and January 25-26, 2010, in Quartzsite, Arizona.

Do You (or Your Spouse) Need Driving Training?

You can do that too! RV Driving School will be offering classes on May 20-23, or immediately following the Escapade on May 29-31. Prices are discounted for Escapees attending the Escapade. Registration includes a three-and-a-half-hour hands-on driving lesson, one-on-one with the instructor in your RV. For more information or to register now go to www.escapees.com/ESCAPADE.
