Escapees Birds of a Feather (BOF) Groups

Escapees has over 50 BOF groups with members who share a common interest in things like computers, four-wheeling, working as you travel, boondocking, genealogy, quilting, crafts, music, traveling solo, pets, metal-detecting, charities, biking, hiking, wood-carving, and just about any interest or hobby you can imagine!

Escapees' newest group is the recently established Geocache BOF. When arriving in a new location, the Geocache BOF provides an easy way to find others who share this interest. It offers a communication link that allows members to stay in touch with other SKP geocachers and share information as it relates to the RV lifestyle. Contact skpgeocachebof@gmail.com.

Unlike chapters, which are organized by geographical areas, BOFs span the country and allow members to expand their talents and share their knowledge based on their individual interests. Whether you are a beginner or an expert, you are welcome to join any BOF that interests you. If there isn't a BOF focused on your special interest, it's easy to start one. Escapees RV Club will help you.

Want to start a BOF?

You'll need a theme or topic.

You'll need an organizer and leader (they do not need to be the same person).

You'll need a time and a place (with the required facilities) to get together.

You'll need a method for communicating the idea to other Escapees members.

You'll need at least 15 people interested in joining the group.

Send your idea to:

Escapees RV Club

Kellie Rossow, BOF Coordinator

100 Rainbow Drive, Livingston, TX 77351

Remember, a BOF group may consist of members of a larger group that is not associated with the Escapees Club; however, all of the members of the BOF group must be Escapees members (e.g. Elks, Christian Fellowship, and the Friends of Bill W.). The primary activity of the group is not allowed to be the marketing or selling of a product. Also, the subject of a BOF group must not be in conflict with any of the rules of Escapees RV Club. Most group ideas are accepted, provided they are not "hate-related" or currently covered by another BOF group and have a theme that will be of interest to a significant number of members.
